Sarah Kelly Appointed Chief Operating Officer

Sarah Kelly has been appointed Chief Operating Officer of Boston Trust Walden Company effective April 1, 2020. Ms. Kelly will provide oversight of Client Administration, Fund Services, Information Technology, Operations, Risk Management, and Compliance. She will report to Stephen Amyouny, co-Chief Executive Officer.

Sarah began her career in 1982 and joined Boston Trust Walden in 2002. During her 18-year tenure with the firm, she has served as the firm's General Counsel and Director of Risk Management. The firm will soon initiate search for a Director of Risk Management, while Sarah will continue to serve as the company's General Counsel.

"Given her long tenure with the firm and industry expertise, we expect Sarah to immediately add value in her new role" said Mr. Amyouny. "Sarah's management experience and strong work ethic make her well-positioned to lead strategic priorities and navigate near-term challenges related to the COVID-19 crisis" he added.
